If SCNA reasonably believes that the information will be used for another purpose, or where it provides a reasonable alternative to achieve the purpose of the demand (Committee FYI: Corp. Code Sec. 6330 (c)), it may deny the member access to the list. (Committee: Sec. 6330 (b)). Without consent of the Board, a membership list may not be used by any person for any purpose not reasonably related to a member's interest as a member. For example, without the consent of the Board, the membership list may not be used to solicit money or property, used for any purpose that the user does not believe will benefit SCNA, used for any commercial purpose, or sold to or purchased by any person (Committee FYI: Corp. Code. Sec. 6338).~~

Immediately upon receipt of a written demand for inspection, SCNA staff shall forward the demand to the Executive Director who shall also forward a copy of the demand to the then-acting Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will review the demand with the Executive Director to ascertain if the requested information is reasonably related to the requestor's interest as a member. If not, the Executive Director and the Executive Committee shall determine if a reasonable alternative to achieve the purpose of the demand exists.

This right may be exercised by any member for a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a member. If SCNA reasonably believes that the information will be used for another purpose, or where it provides a reasonable alternative to achieve the purpose of the demand, it may deny the member access to the list. Without consent of the Board, a membership list may not be used by any person for any purpose not reasonably related to a member's interest as a member. For example, without the consent of the Board, the membership list may not be used to solicit money or property, used for any purpose that the user does not believe will benefit SCNA, used for any commercial purpose, or sold to or purchased by any person.
